

Homework
Class: 10
Chapter 5
Topic: Natural Vegetation of India.

- a. Define natural vegetation. State its importance
- b. Why forests are also called index of prosperity?
- c. Why do we see different types of natural vegetation in India?
- d. Distinguish between tropical evergreen and tropical deciduous forest
- e. Which vegetation belt is most important in India and why?
- f. How vegetation of dry forest survives in extreme dry conditions?
- g. Define agroforestry, reforestation, vanmahotsav.
- h. Why we need to conserve forest?
- i. Where tidal forest found in India. State special features.
- j. Why mountain forest varies from deciduous to alpine?