

KRISHNAGAR ACADEMY

CLASS - III

SUBJECT - HISTORY

CHAPTER - I

Date
04/06/20

1) Fill in the blanks

- a) Ancient means distant past.
- b) Prehistory is the period for which there are no written records.
- c) Early Man would draw or paint on the cave walls.
- d) Findings of archaeologists are known as artefacts.
- e) Papyrus which was used to make paper was found along the river Nile.

2) Match the following:

- | | | |
|---------------|---|---------------|
| a) Prehistory | — | iv) Early Man |
| b) Chinese | — | i) Paper |
| c) Nomad | — | iii) Food |
| d) Tools | — | ii) Stone |
| e) Fire | — | v) Forests |

3. Complete the following sentences -

- a) A manuscript is a ~~down~~ document on a book written by hand.
- b) Inscriptions are words written on stones, coins on monuments
- c) BC stands for before christ
- d) In AD the dates are counted after the birth of Christ.
- e) Stone Age can be divided into two periods. The Old Stone Age and the new Stone Age.

4) Answer in one sentence

a) What is history?

Ans History tells us about what happened in the past. It reveals how people lived, what they ate, where they lived.

b) What is history divided into?

Ans History is divided into two parts -

a) Pre history

b) History

c) Mention two things that the stone age man did with his tools.

Ans Two things that the stone age man did with his tools were to dig and to cut.

d) Give one difference between the Old Stone Age and New Stone Age tool.

Ans The Old Stone Age tools were crude, large, blunt and rough whereas the New Stone Age tools were polished, chipped, smooth, sharp and small.

e) State two uses of fire.

Ans Two uses of fire were

a) It gave them light and warmth from the cold.

b) It helped them to frightened away wild animals.