

KRISHNAGAR ACADEMY

CLASS -IV

SUBJECT: ENGLISH LITERATURE (PAPER-II)

TOPIC: PIPPI LONGSTOCKING BY ASTRID LINDGREN (CHAPTER-1)

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

WORKING WITH WORDS

Use the following words and phrases from the passage in sentences of your own:

- a. stepped out : Mrs Ray stepped out of her house during lockdown.
- b. had no idea : I had no idea how to complete the project within one night.
- c. wondering whether : I was wondering whether to go to school or not.
- d. grow into : The seedling will grow into a tall attractive plant.
- e. gathered : Tulika gathered enough courage and participated in the debate competition.
- f. it must be admitted : It must be admitted that dogs are very faithful animals.
- g. remarkable : Shrestha had made a remarkable result last year.
- h. you can be sure : You can be sure of his coming tonight.
- i. politely: We should always talk politely.

LEARNING ABOUT LANGUAGE

1. Fill in the blanks in the following.

- a. break : broke broken
- b. show : showed shown
- c. go : went gone
- d. cheat : cheated cheated
- e. stream : streamed streamed
- f. hear : heard heard
- g. say : said said
- h. spread : spread spread

2. Make sentences of your own with the following words:

- a) broken : Water spurted from the broken pipe.
- b) shown : Angles are usually shown in pictures dressed in white.
- c) gone : The book has gone out of print.
- d) cheated : He cheated me out of my money.
- e) streamed : The whole village was streamed with flood water.
- f) heard : I heard stories of gruesome tortures in prisons.
- g) said : He said he wanted to go to town.
- h) spread : The fire spread rapidly because of the strong wind.

3. Add articles to the following where necessary. Note that not all the blanks require an article.

Once upon a time there lived a king who was a fine man. The kingdom he ruled was X very large and all the people who lived in it X were happy and prosperous. One day a great flood of X water came pouring down from the mountains and swept away the palace and most of the city. Many of the people were drowned but the king sent his army and carried everyone to some high X ground. In this way he saved X many people from X death.

4. Join the following sentences with who or which.

a. This is the dog. It has a strange name.

Answer: This is the dog which has a strange name.

b. This is the bin. The dog tipped it over.

Answer: This is the bin which the dog tipped over.

c. This is the teacher. She told the boys to be quiet.

Answer: This is the teacher who told the boys to be quiet.

d. These are the children. They are throwing water at us.

Answer: These are the children who are throwing water at us.

e. This is the fence. They looked over it.

Answer: This is the fence which they looked over.

f. This is Mohan. He lives next door.

Answer: This is Mohan who lives next door.

g. This is the cat. It comes into our house every night.

Answer: This is the cat which comes into our house every night.

5. Underline the nouns in the following sentences.

a. Once upon a time there was an old man called Ramji.

b. One day he took his dog and went to the forest.

c. Suddenly out of the bushes came a fierce tiger.

d. Ramji was afraid, but his dog feared no man or creature.

e. It took one step towards the tiger and barked.

f. Ramji stood with his back against a tree.

g. Soon the tiger ran into the forest.

h. Ramji went home and told his wife about their brave pet.

i. ‘Well done!’ she said in a loud voice, and the dog wagged its tail.
