

Chapter-1

Globes, maps and diagrams.

B. Fill in the blanks:

1. The ratio between map distance and ground distance is called scale.
2. The direction to the left of the north line is West.
3. A topographical map is an example of a large-scale map.
4. A map which shows relief and human features is a topographical map.
5. To find out the direction of a place, we use cardinal points.
6. The Key or legend explains the signs and symbols given in a map.
7. The person who makes a map is called a Cartographer.
8. A map with a smaller scale is able to represent a large area.

c. Give a single word for the following:

1. An arrow with its head pointing to the North. North line.
2. The relative position of a place with reference to the north. Cardinal direction.
3. The ratio between map distance and ground distance. Scale.
4. A small-sized replica of the Earth. Globe
5. The study of map-making. Cartography
6. A collection of maps in the form of a book. Atlas.
7. Maps which show information about Landforms. Physical map.
8. Proportion by which a map has been reduced. Scale.