

15.6.2020

Chapter - 2

Date _____
Page _____

A. Multiple choice questions:

1. Which is the example of Residual mountains?

a. Vesuvius

b. Vosges

c. Aravali

d. Alps

2. An elevated level expanse of land is:

a. Mountain

b. Plateau

c. Plain

d. River

3. These are formed as a result of depositional work of running water at the river mouth:

a. Plains

b. Deltas

c. Valleys

d. Isthmus

4. The Deccan Plateau has rich deposits of this soil?

a. Black soil

b. Red soil

c. Alluvial soil

d. All of these

(B) Write True or False:

1. Old mountains are very high with steep slopes and pointed peaks. False
2. A plain which is formed by the depositional work of wind is known as a Loess Plain. True
3. Block mountains are known as mountains of circum-denudation or relict mountains. False
4. Black soil is very fertile and considered good for the cultivation of crops like rice. False
5. Human activities have brought about degradation of land. True

(C) Who am I?

1. I am a land mass surrounded by water on all sides. Island
2. I am a narrow stretch of water between two land masses. Strait
3. I am a remnant highland of an old mountain range. Residual mountain
4. I am a table-like highland. Plateau