Dear students,

Here are some questions and answers of the chapter
'A Voyage to Brobdingnag'

Question 4.

How did Gulliver react in front of his ~~brother's~~ master's friend?

Ans.

When Gulliver was presented in front of his master's friend he was placed on a table where he walked as he was commanded. Gulliver paid respects to his master's guest, asked him in his own language how he was and told him he was welcome. Glumdalclitch, the little nurse instructed Gulliver to do all this.

Question 5.

Why did Golumdalclitch begin to cry?

Ans:

When Golumdalclitch heard that her father's friend had advised her father, to display Gulliver on market day in the next town. She began to cry.

Golumdalclitch was worried about Gulliver. She thought that some crude people might squeeze him to death, or break one of his limbs by taking him in their ~~own~~ hands. Golumdalclitch felt, it ~~was~~ ^{was} an insult to Gulliver to be exposed for money as a public spectacle to the people.

Question 6.

What did Gulliver's master do on advice of his friend?

Ans:- On the advice of his friend, Gulliver's master, carried Gulliver in a box to the next market day to the neighbouring town.
