

Key Concepts

- Family tree
- Fun and celebrations with family
- Care for the differently-abled/aged
- Care for pets
- Indoor and outdoor games with peer group

People living together in the same house and who are related to each other make a family. Family can be of different sizes.

A small family with only parents and children is called a nuclear family.

A big family where children, parents, grandparents and sometimes even uncles, aunts and cousins live together is called a joint family.

Family members love each other and help each other. They take care of each other in times of need.

Our father's parents are our paternal grandparents. Our mother's parents are our maternal grandparents. Our aunts, uncles and their families are our extended family. The children of our uncles and aunts are our cousins.

Good to know!

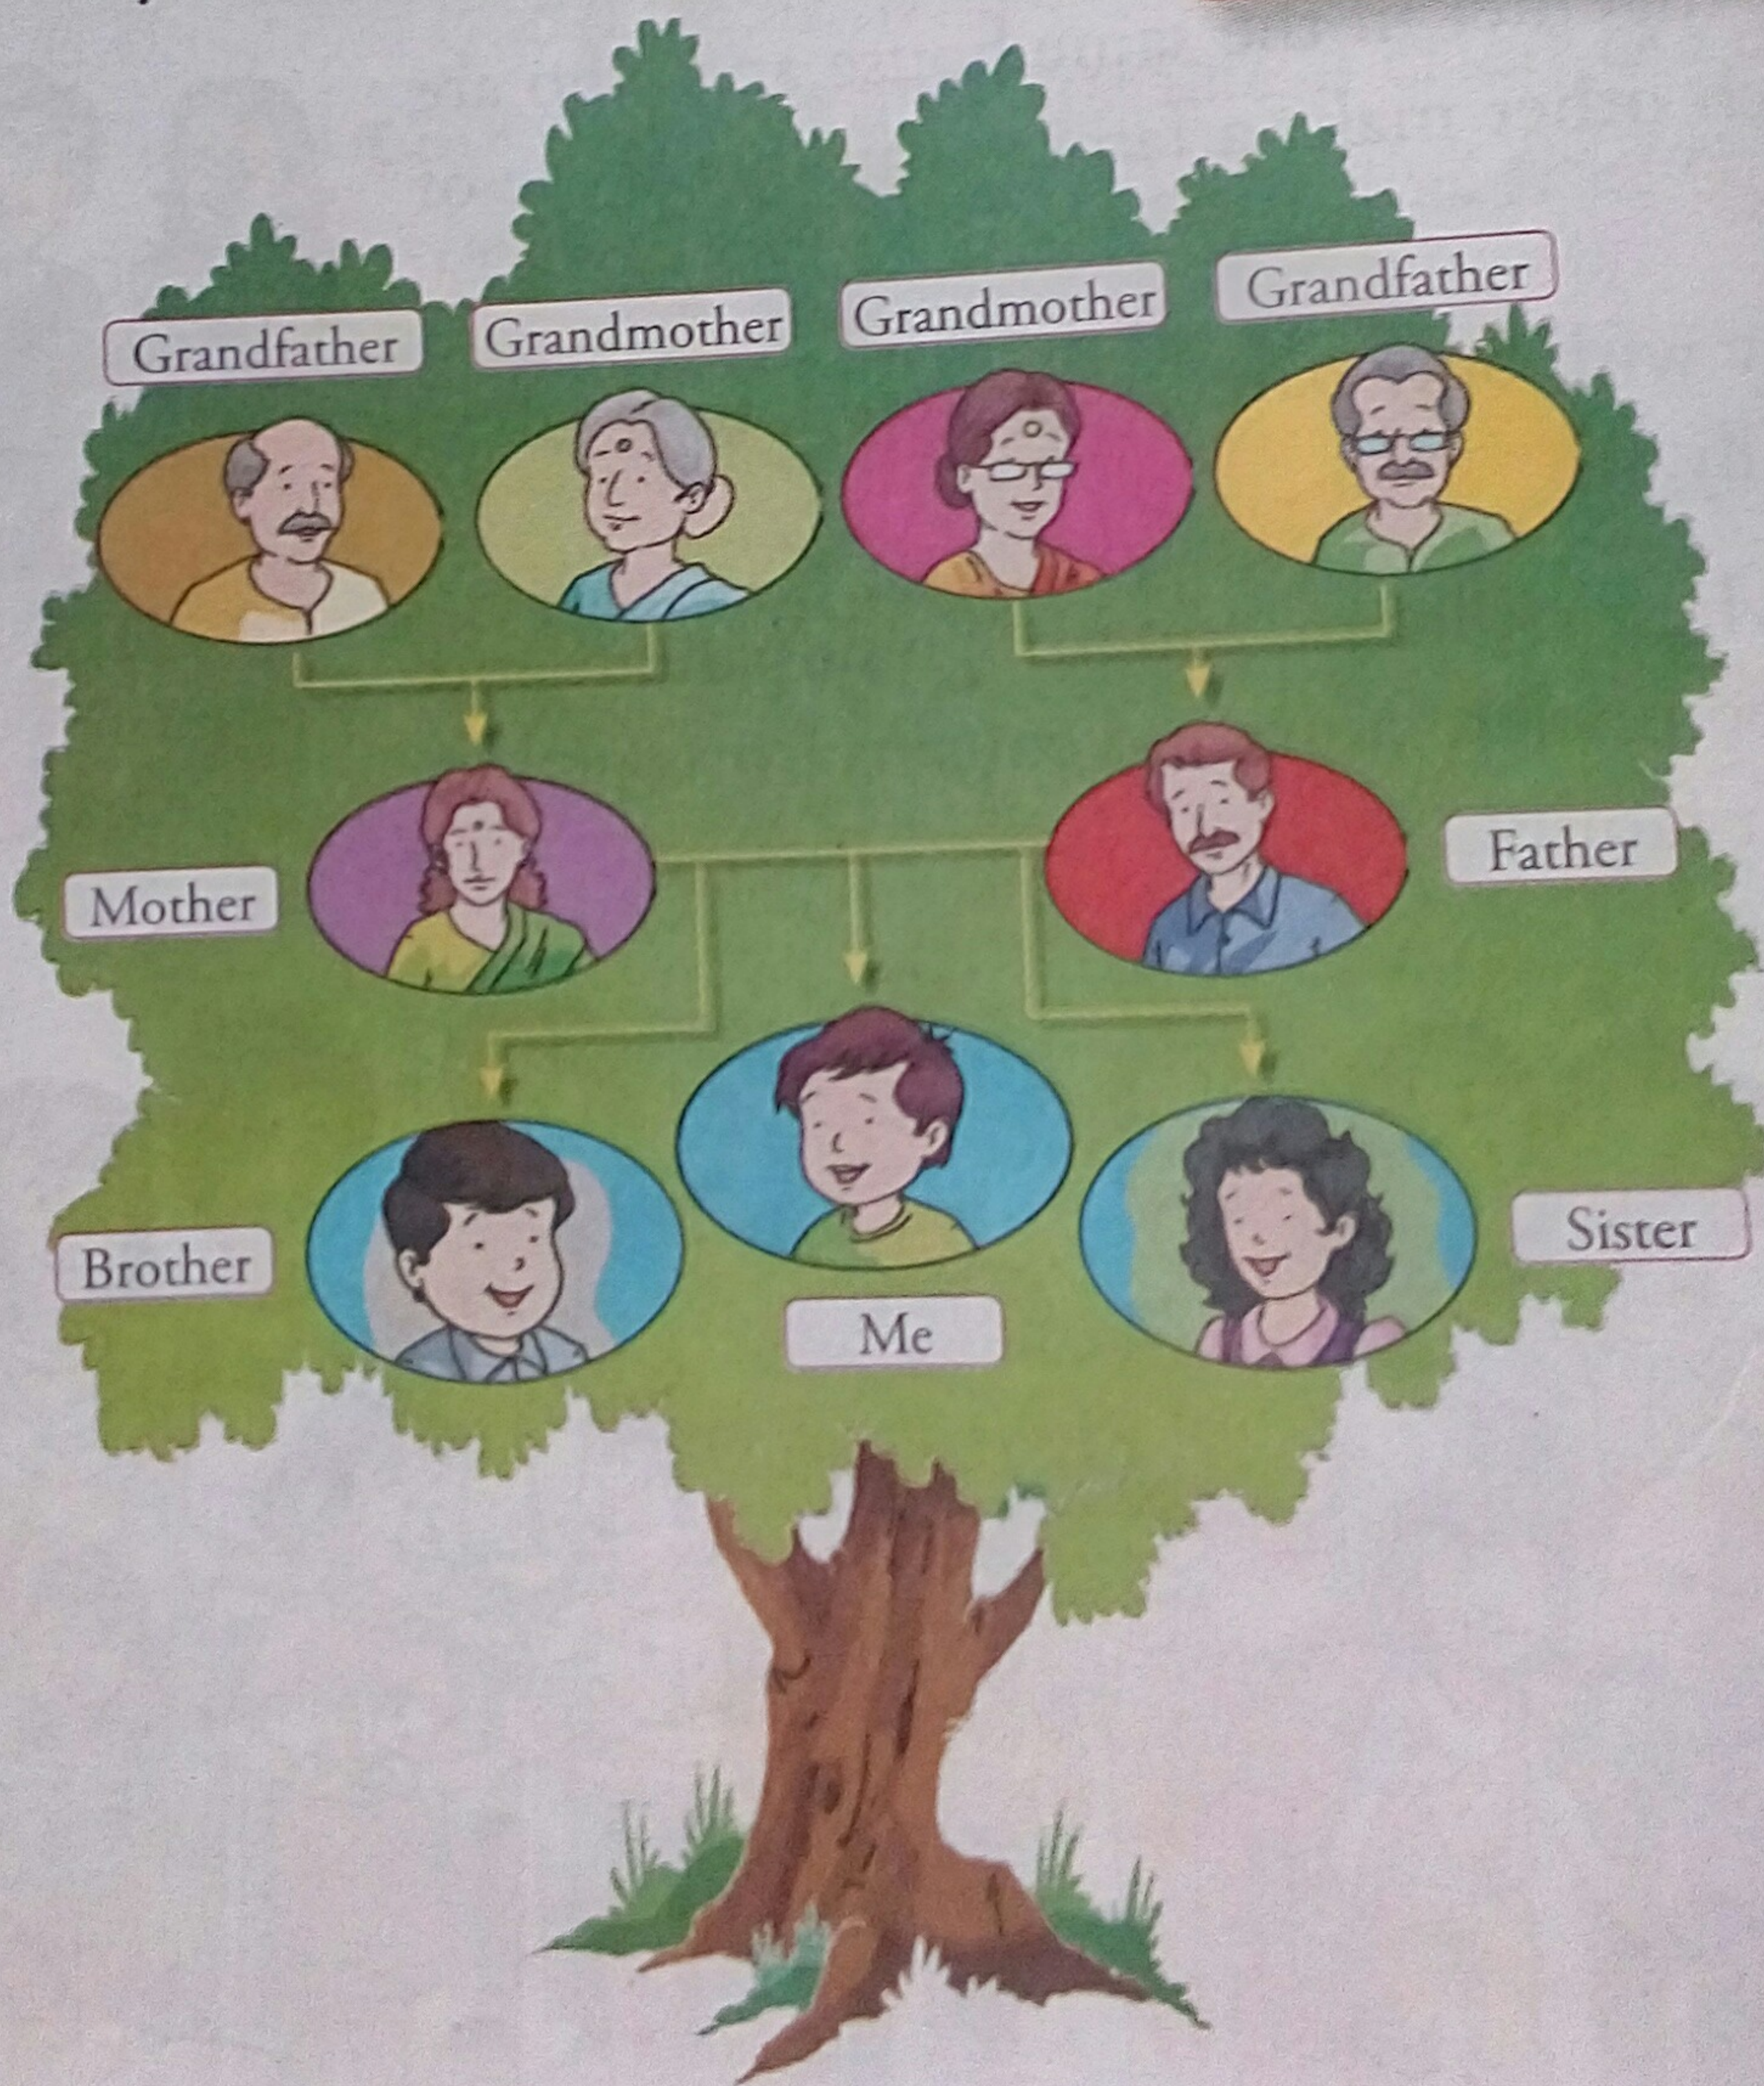

Sometimes, children may live with only one parent, the father or the mother. Such a family is called a single-parent family.

FAMILY TREE

A family tree shows how members of a family are related to each other. As the size of a family increases, the family tree also grows in size.

Stop to Answer

- What is the difference between a cousin and a sibling?

CELEBRATIONS WITH FAMILY

We celebrate festivals, birthdays and other special occasions with our family members. We also celebrate marriages, anniversaries and other special events with our family. We also go for picnics and visit a fair or an amusement park. We play different games and have a lot of fun with our siblings and cousins.

CARING FOR OTHERS

Family members love and help each other. We should take care of each other in times of need.

We should help our elders and spend time with them.

In our surroundings we also find people who may not have the ability to see or hear or even speak. Some people may not have hands or legs. They are differently-abled people. We should try to support them and appreciate them for doing everything just like we do.

Good to know!

People who cannot see, use their sense of touch and feel to read a special system of writing called Braille.

CARING FOR PETS

Some of us have pets living with us in our houses. They are also part of our family, we must take care of them.

- We must give them proper food and shelter.
- We must take them to a veterinary doctor when they are ill.

THE JOY OF SHARING

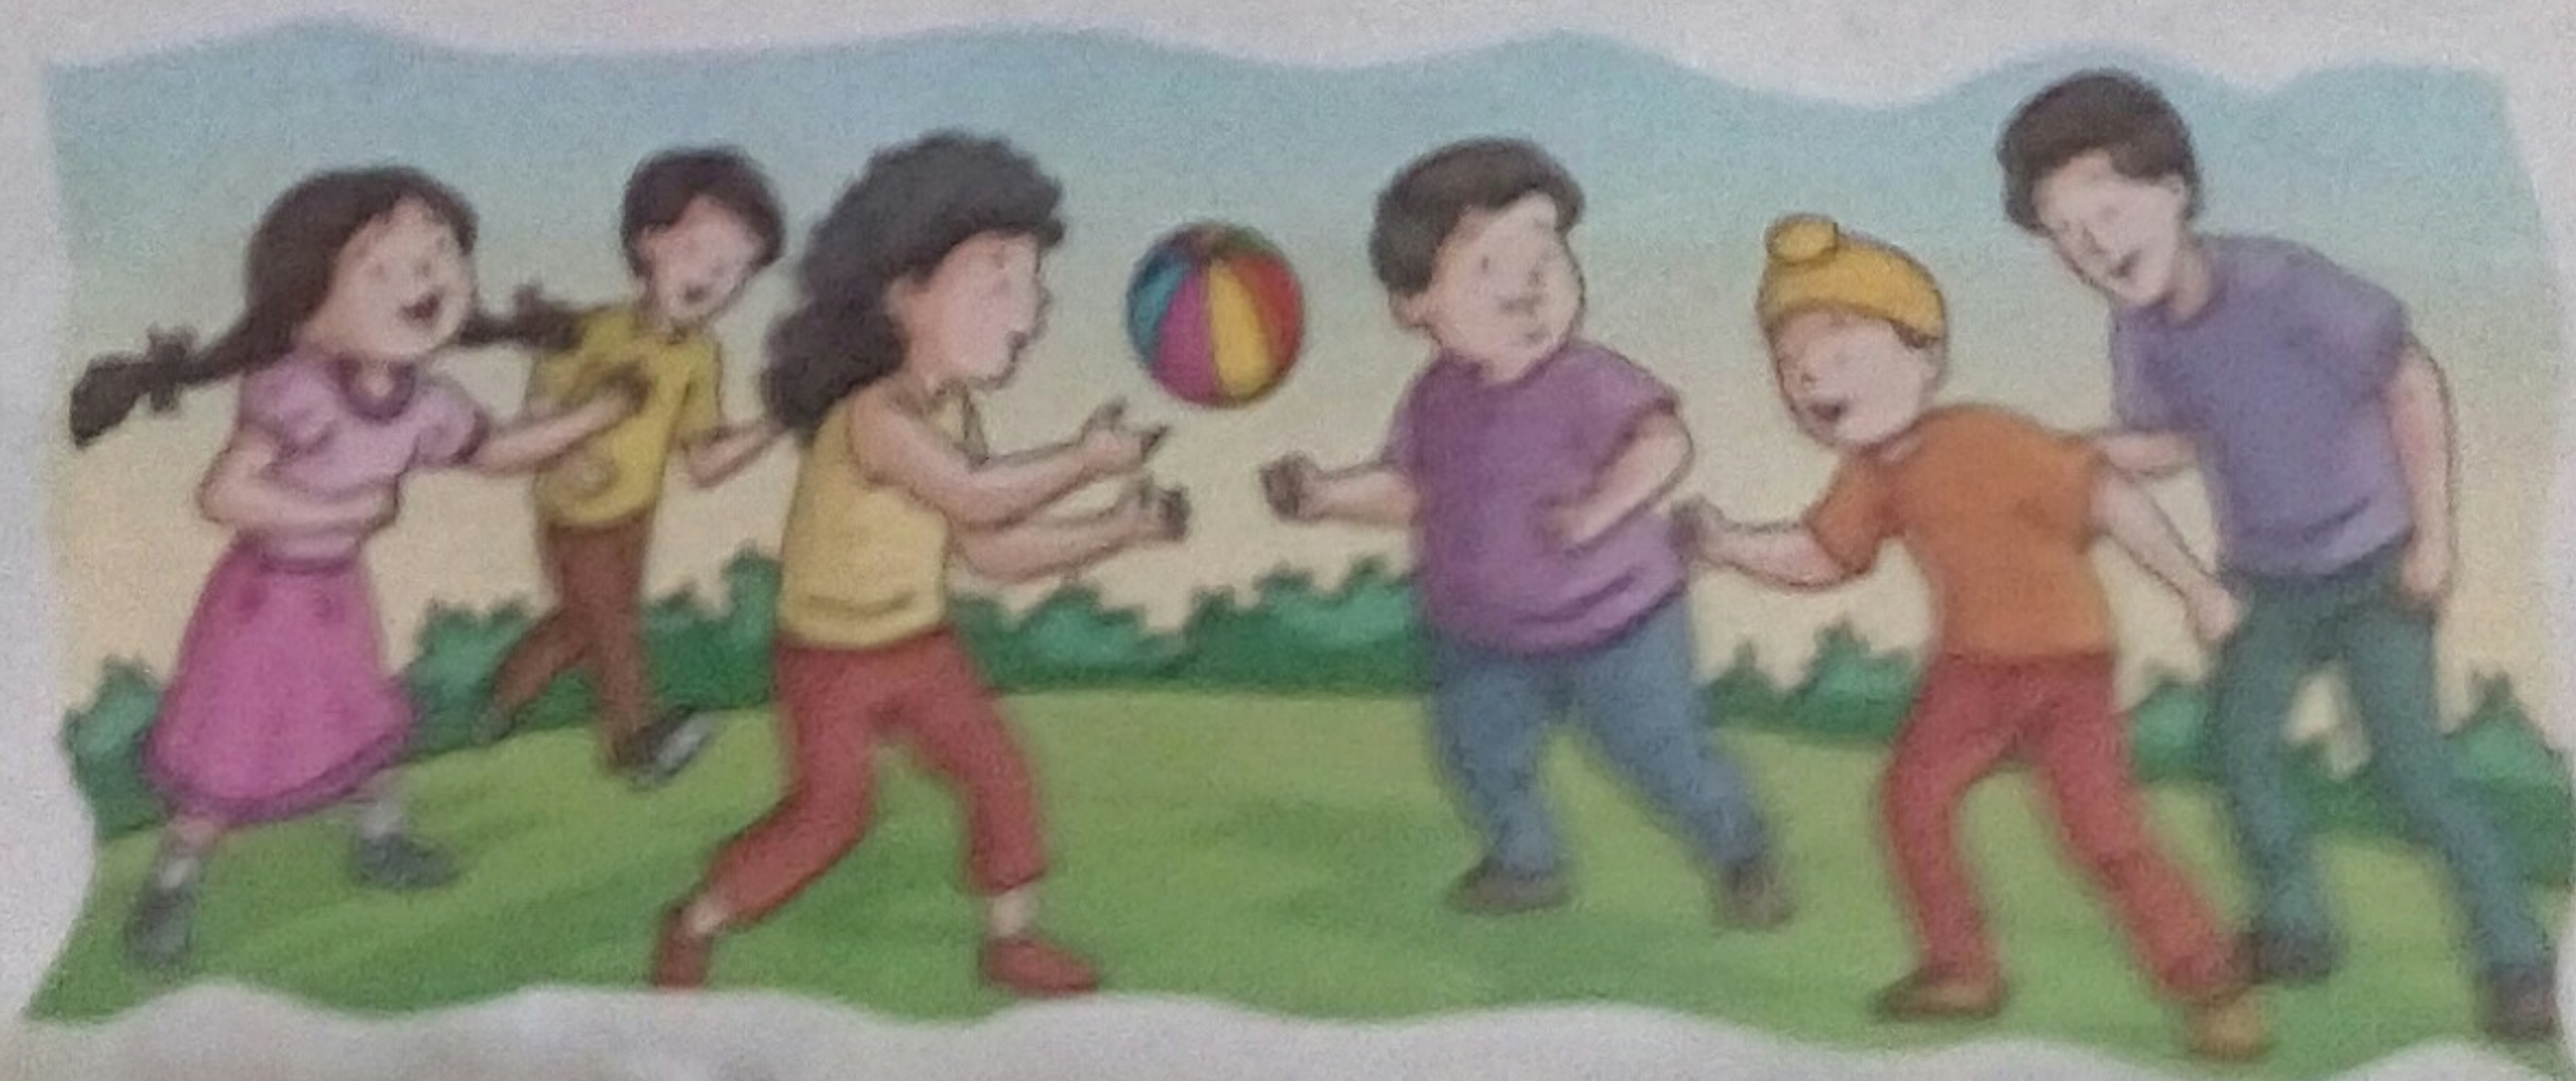

There are so many people around us. Some are a part of our family, while some are our friends and neighbours. We must be friendly and helpful towards all of them. We must share our things with them and also share our joys and sorrows.

GAMES WE PLAY

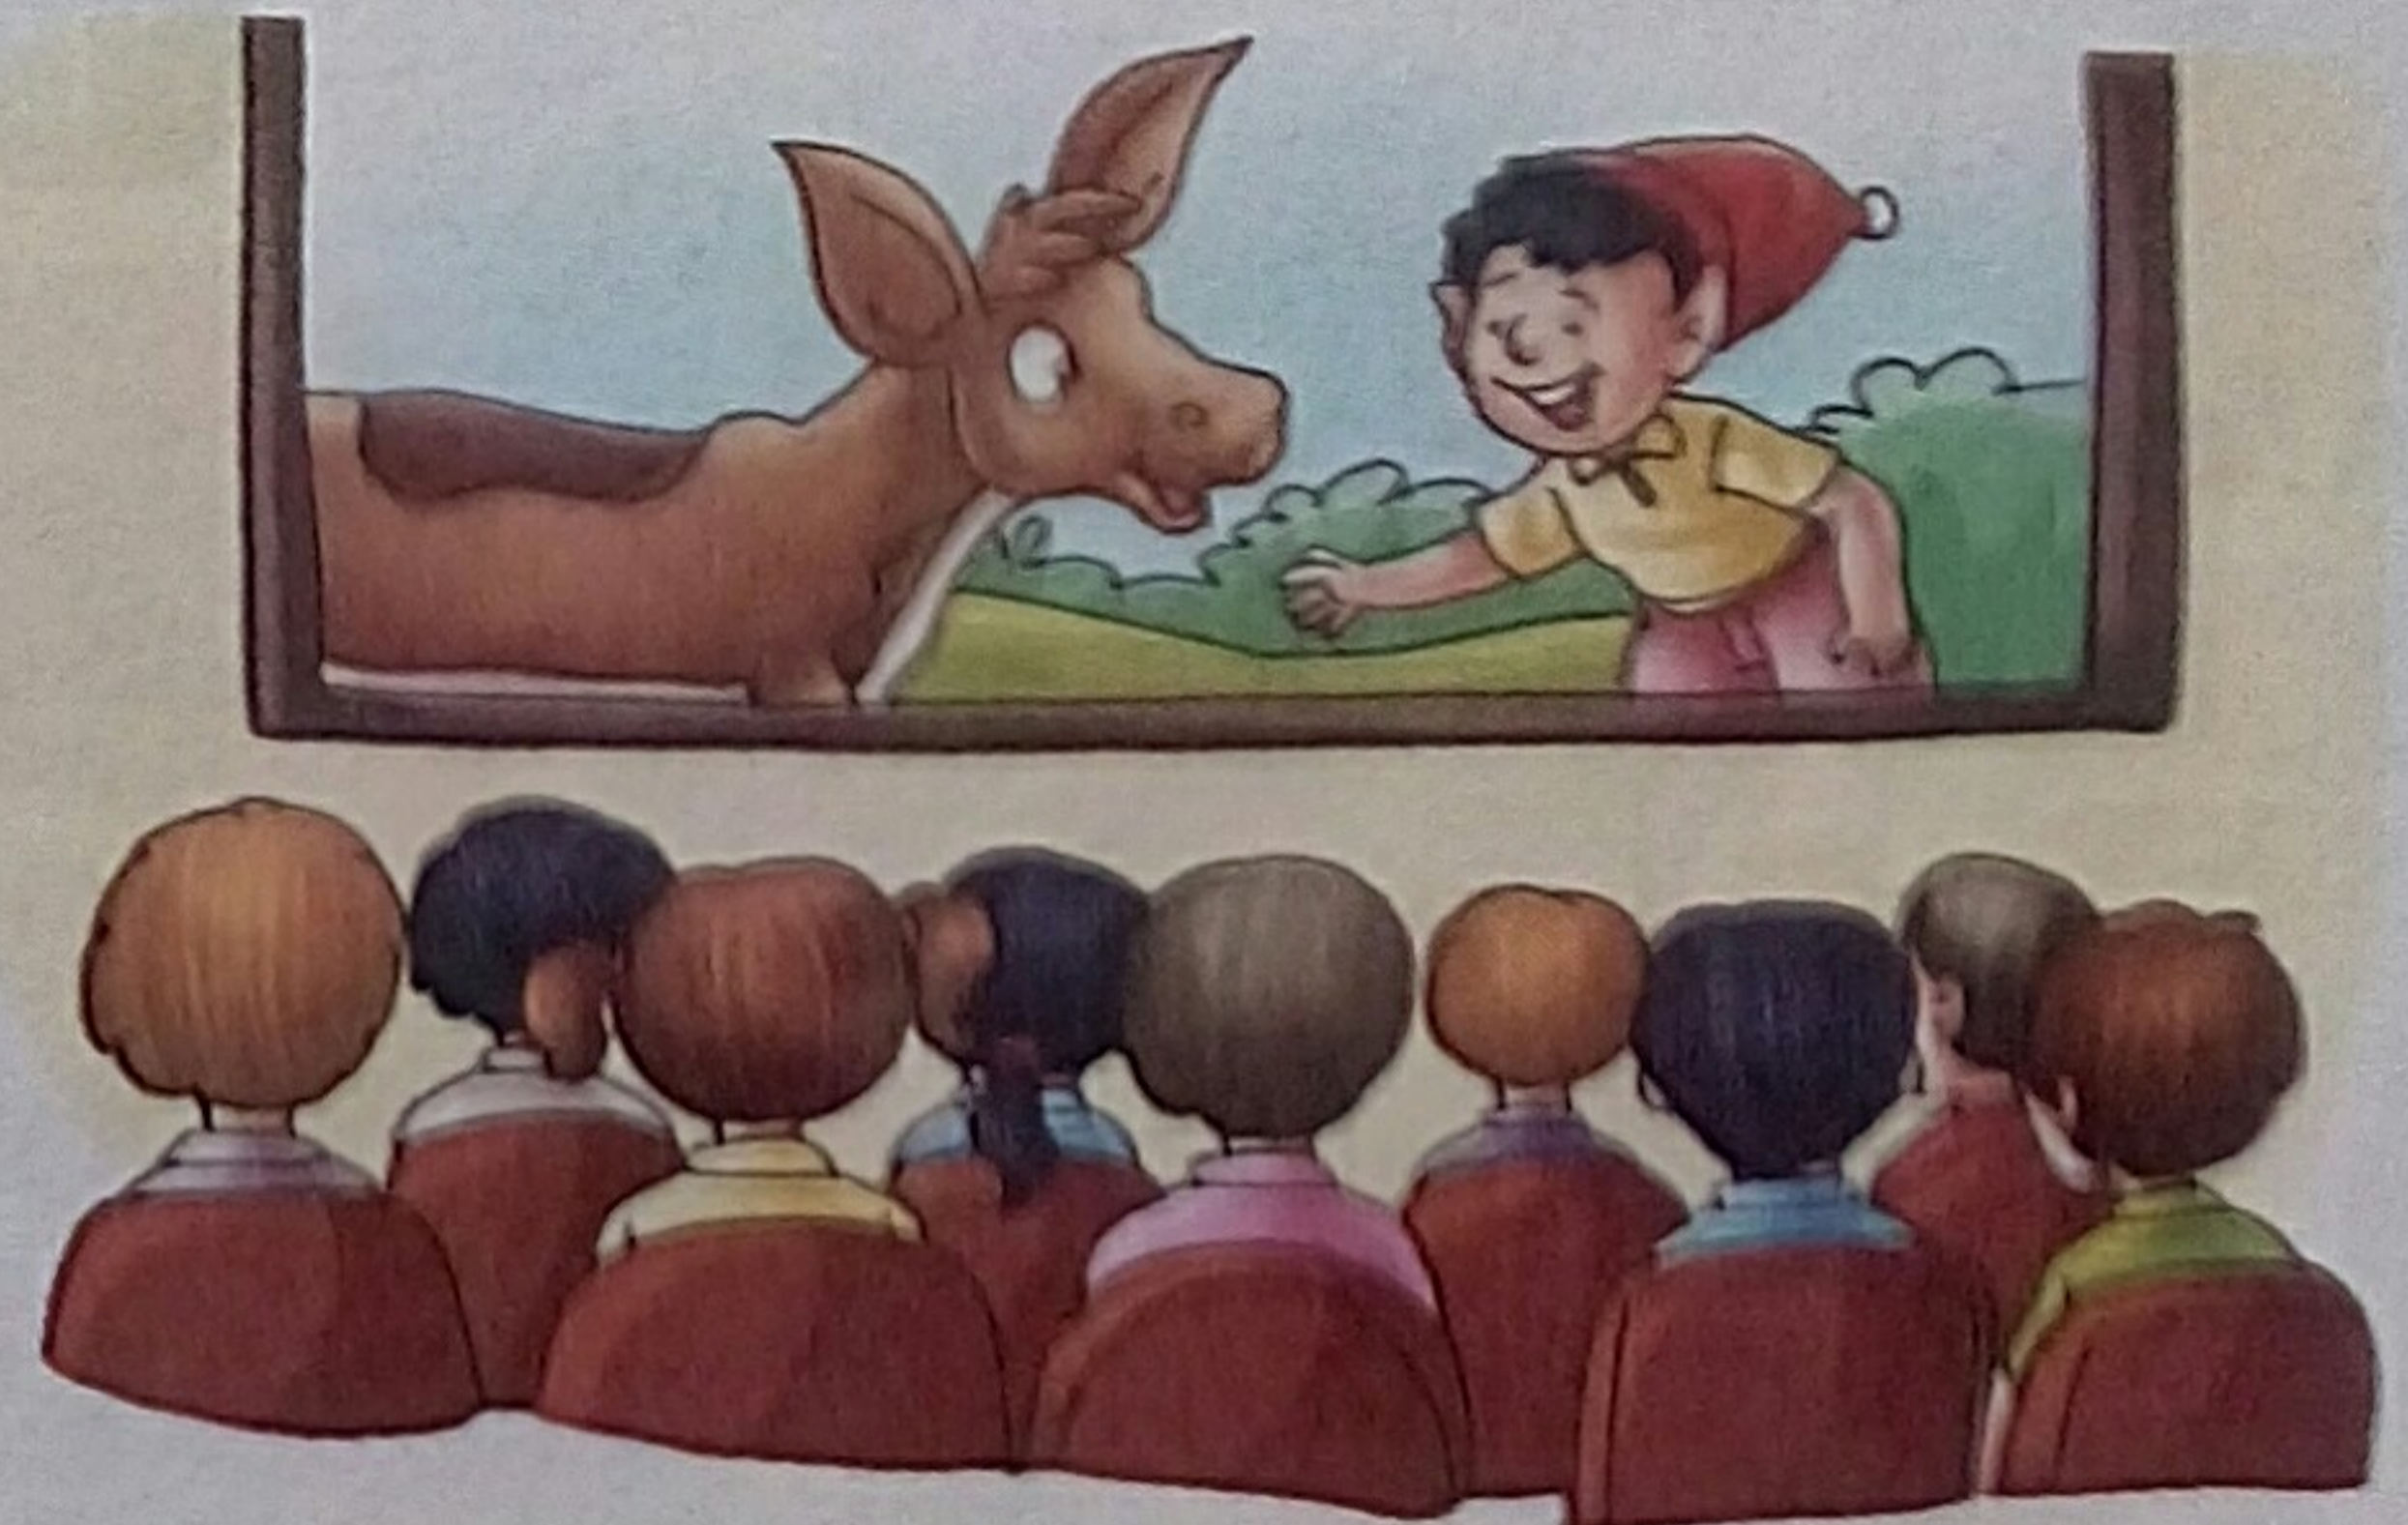

We play different types of games. Games that are played inside the house are called indoor games. Ludo, carrom, chess, etc. are some indoor games.

Games that are played outside the house in open grounds or parks are called outdoor games. Football, cricket, handball, volleyball, etc. are some outdoor games.

OTHER MEANS OF FUN AND RECREATION

Other than playing games, we may visit a fair, watch a puppet show, visit amusement parks, visit a zoo, or even play in the neighbourhood park for fun and recreation.

Remember, we should not only work and study hard, but we should also play and have fun to keep our body and mind fresh.
