D) Answer these questions with reference to context.

1. Try telling my history teacher that ----

a. Who says this to whom?

b. Who is the narrator and what is she trying to do?

c. Who is Ambu and why does she disagree with the narrator?

d. How did Ambu react on the mention of Goldilocks?

Answers.

1. The narrator's twelve-year old daughter Ambu tells this to the narrator.

2. The narrator is the mother of the twelve-year old daughter Ambu.

She is trying to keep the three children out of mischiefs by telling them stories.

3. Ambu is the daughter of the narrator.

Ambu disagrees with the narrator because the narrator does not mention any specific date when she starts the story.
Ambu insists that, her history teacher wants her to get all the dates right in her history test.

4. When the narrator mentioned about Goldilocks, Ambu said in a complaining way that it's good that she did not choose to call her Long Nose or Saucer Eyes.

2. 'The poor thing came to a cottage that belonged to the three bears.'
- Who is being addressed here as the poor thing?
 - What did the poor thing do in the cottage of three bears?
 - What were the bears doing?
 - Is Goldilocks a murder mystery? Give reasons.
