(10)

Read the story and answer the following questions:

Once there lived an old man in a village. He did not know how to read and write. He always noticed that people wore spectacles while reading newspapers and books. He thought, "I can also read if I have spectacles like them. I must buy a pair for myself."

So one day he went to the market. He entered the shop that sold spectacles and asked the shopkeeper for a pair of spectacles. The shopkeeper gave him several pairs of spectacles and a book. The man tried all of them one by one, but could not read anything. He told the shopkeeper that the spectacles were of no use to him. The shopkeeper realized that the man was holding the book upside down. He then said, " Perhaps you don't know how to read."
